There is no more necessary for an overtal session this year, anyhow, than there has been in the past, for the work is all going along swimmingly and can assuredly be completed by the 13th inst, which will only mean a seventy-six day session—nothing out of the ordinary. The general appropriation bill is getting along at a great rate, and, although the coeffy government bill will not be out of the Senate for a few days, it is not likely to engage very much time in the House for the simple reason that nearly all the general amendments are being defeated in the Senters.

OTIS PREPARES TO CRUSH THE INSURCENTS.

WASHINGTON, March 6 .- There is some reason to expect important news from Manila within the next fortlight. It has developed that General Otis has practically completed his plans for a grand ouslaught on the insurgents, which is expected to deprive them of offensive power at least.

It is probable that he will form a large part of his force in two columns as soon as reinforcements are at hand, and will push these in parallel lines straight through the jungles, clearing out the insurgents in every direction as the troops move forward.

The American troops are getting restless and nervous under the petty but annoying sharpshooting of the Filipinos, and are so anxious to put a stop to this that General Otis has yielded to their desire.

Mr. Talcott said it was a matter in which a great many persons were interested. It seemed to him that where which a great many persons were interested. It seemed to him that where persons had taken inter est enough to go there to voice their views on the subject they should be given a chance to be heard. What surprised him was that anybody could go through the section of a district as intelligent as that from which the petition had come and get people to sign a petition in long enough.

J. Brevoort, a resident of Melrose district, said by way of explaining the situation, that there had been a lack of harmony in that district. It arose over the issuance of school bonds and the selection of a school site. There had been an attempt made to select a school site in a low part of the district, where there was no drainage. An attempt was made also to issue bonds, and when a vote was taken the bonds were defeated. Another attempt was made to issue bonds and the bonds were defeated again. Second-We consider the public schools as the bulwark of American liberty, and we intend to support and maintain them to the fullest extent.

Third—We are in favor of all kinds of public improvements, and the purchasing of a park that will meet with the approval of the people.

Fourth—We are in favor of the completion of the work on the West Oakland marshes, and the improvements of independence Square in East Oakland.

Fifth—Considering the oppressive water rates in Oakland, we are in favor of the acquisition by the city of the water supply, and to the accomplishment of the send we instruct our candidates to use every lawful means.

Sixth—Until Oakland shall acquire its own water supply, we are in favor of fixing the rates justly and fairly, and at the same time are of the opinion that the present rates are too high and ought to be reduced.

Seventh—We are also in favor of the acquisition by the city of its gas and electrical works.

Eighth—In consequence of the city's liftgations, many thousands of dollars have been spent unnecessarily for outside attorneys. We are opposed to this, and if our nominee for City Attorney is elected, we promise for him that he will properly attend to the city's litigation without additional counsel.

Ninth—We are in favor of the improvement of our streets, and think they should be put and maintained in the best condition at the least expense.

Tenth—We endorse the eight hour law recently passed in the House of Representatives.

Whereas, The city of Oakland is now organized under a freeholders' charter which was framed at a time when its municipal affairs were subject to and controlled by general laws; and

Whereas, By the amendment to the State Constitution of 1896 it is permitted to manage its municipal affairs without reference to general laws and entirely independent of them; and

Whereas, By reason of the former state of the constitution, the present charter is very defective and requires to be amended in many particulars relating to municipal affairs; therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Democratic party of the city of Oakland is in favor of securing action by the City Council, to the end that proper amendments may be prepared and submitted to the people for ratification. In order that the city of Oakland may receive the full measure of benefits derived from the said amendment to the State Constitution, and thereby repeal many general laws now applicable, which arrest the development of the city and prevent its citizens from correcting many abuses in the administration of its affairs.

AN INCREDIBLE CHARGE.

Professor George Herron, who holds he chair of Applied Theology in Iowa College, at Grinnell, Iowa, in a Chicago political meeting made an alleged revelation which he there admitted he had received 'from a certain capitalist for whom he stands as father confescor." His revelation is not more astounding than that he, having so obtained it, should have felt at liberty to make it. It was to the purport that ACCUSED BY United States was wholly the result of United States was wholly the result of conspiracy on the part of some merchants, who subsidized the press and Congress, in order to be enabled to div.de, as it was asserted they have done, thirty millions of dollars of unholy profits. THE MEDDLER. You must have thought it odd when Saturday night failed to bring my letter, and I owe you all sorts of apologies for having stayed so late at Highlands that I really couldn't write to you on Friday night as I should have done. It was a charming dinner. Mrs. Long had one of her inspirations and the result was that a favored few of us were called up by telephone, and you may be sure that there was not a "regret." What though it were Lent and Friday at that? We didn't care. The menu was delicious, and I didn't derful room. I are many colors. The world, in the spickest, spannest, new-est uniform? The best of it was that there was a lieutenant for every girl, and consequently no hard feeling as to precedence. Each girl was sure that she drew the prize of them all, and though sometimes the tallest girl was paired with the shortest man, Mrs. Sam Erck Jr. and her paired with the shortest man, Mrs. paired with the shortest man, Mrs. Long had arranged all that beforehand, before she had seen some of her mill-tary guests. Lieutenant Morry is a particular friend of Colonel Long and every one of the young West Pointers are most charming. I predict some romances as a result or that dinner, as I know there was some heart burnings over it. At least one girl left her solltaire diamond on her dressing table as she did not wish her lieutenant to know she was engaged. At this her fance bewalled his sad fate and almost forbade her the dinner, but she flouted him, of course, as a spirited engaged maiden should. There was more than one promise to write, though we shall see the young lieutenants but once again—that when Mrs. Long chapters of she will heave in a party to see them ciff. The Bendel silver wedding reception a week ago last Friday evening was at very pretty affair, attended by the German Consul and all the prominent German families from both sides of the bay. Colonel and Mrs. Bendel were assisted in receiving by all their children, and it was hard to tell which looked the younger, the parents or the children. After all, twenty-five years are not so long if they are happy. The house was charmingly decorated, especially the Bismarck souvenirs, of which Col. Bendel has many. Prince Bismarck was a good friend of Colonel Bendel, and the latter has a fine portrait, an autograph letter and other valuable mementoes. These were obligeds of great interest, especially since the pretitiest, but Mrs. Sam Breck looked very well, her gown lit with becoming cerise. Mrs. Robert Knight was chic in blue foulard, and Mrs. Will Mage was stunning in magenta.

The unmarried girls were the "ladies of cakes and tea"—you remember, in Chester Furnald's "Cat and Cherub."

A man in the darkness of hopeless disease is of all men most miserable. When doctors and medicines innumerable have been tried and found wanting, and loving friends vainly urge upon him the food he cannot eat and which brings him no nourishment or strength, what is to be done?

Men and women who have sunken so far into weakness and disease that the whole body seems to be permeated and poisoned by it have found health, strength and vigor through the transforming, electrifying power of that wonderful "Golden Medical Discovery" which Dr. R. It gives the digestive organism keen power and capacity to appropriate every life-giving element from the food taken into the stomach and transforms it into rich, highly vitalized blood and healthy fiesh, bone, sinew and nerve fiber.

Consumption in all its earlier stages is arrested and counteracted by the tissuebuilding, flesh-making, life-promoting power of this grand medicine and there is no darkness of bodily ailment so dense but it will shed upon the sufferer the light of renewed hope.

In glowing terms the chairman then introduced John L. Davie as the next Mayor of Oakland.

DAVIE SLAPS AT PARDEE.

The announcement of Davie's name was greeted with cheers and prolonged applause. When quiet resumed, Mr. Davie spoke as follows:

"Mr. Chairman, fellow citizens, ladies and gentleman. I appear before you this evening to say a few words regarding my candidacy for Mayor of your city. Those of you who read the daily papers, will be surprised per-haps when I tell you that nearly all a fact) they were obliged to go to San that has been said by one of our even. "I will now read from the Oakland Times of July 18, 1894, to substantiate what I have said:

what I have said:

"Mayor Pardee has just arrived from Castle Crag, where he has been since June 15th. On his arrival he forthwith called a meeting of oltizens. He had a gatling gun in front of him, which reminded the mighty warrior of the time when he had a similar instrument placed in front of the City Hall to scare a few industrials. The torney Piersol, mounted on a staid old Mayor's gatling gun was the only sign of hostility. West Cakland was as quiet and orderly as it could be.

"After drawing his fingers through his very long hair a few times, the nad arrived too late to be of any use." The Zouave band followed and returned to the scene of action.

"Pardee, the great, had reached the field of blood after the smoke of battle had cleared away. He had judiciously timed his arrival so that there could be no danger of his losing political prestige, by a false move. But there was still time to make one of those famous plays for the applause of the gallery, that have distinguished the present administration since it went into office. into office.

"There was still a chance to how after Rome had burned, even though after Rome had burned, even though others had quenched the fire, and the gladiator of Castle Cray tavern decided to make a howl.

"When his meeting was called to order, Pardee was not in sight, and a friend explained he would return when it was known how the crowd felt. There was but one sentiment among those assembled and it was would by those assembled, and it was voiced by all. The Mayor had been at Castle the Mayor had been at Castle the Mayor had been at Castle that time the city was without the semblance of an executive head.

I ask the peo-ple who ride across the bay for 5 cents if this is true. The answer comes back, 'No, it is false!'
"I ask this distinguished gentleman assume the initiative in the absence of the man who was paid to attend to such duties." The Mayor's statement that he could not get back before is false. There is a drummer at the Hotel Metropole who last week came down in three days from Castle Crag, and Pardee could have come as well. He did not want to come back, and this is the opinion of every merchant five carts at work now and the poor men who own horses and carts have to in town. If Pardee was anything but a blatant ass, he would have been at his post two weeks ago. Playing to the gallery deceives no one.

"This will give you an idea of what the people thought of the windy Pardee on the day of his coming home. And the opinion did not improve as time went on. I now read from the Times of the next day, July 19, 1894: PILING IT ON.

I saw Elpans Tabules advertised in our daily paper, bought some and took them as directed. Have taken them about three weeks and there as such a change i I am not constipated any more and I owe if all to Ripans Tabules. I am thigty-seven years eld, have no occupation, only my household duties and nursing my sick husband. He has had the droppy and I am trying Ripans Tabules for him. He feels some batter but it will take some time, he has been sick so long. You may use my letter and name as you like.

Mrs. Mart Gorman Clarke.

I have used appins Tabules with so much satisfaction that I can obserfully recommend them. Have been troubled for about three years with what I called billous attacks coming on regularly once a week. Was told by different physicians that it was caused by had toeth, of which 'than several. I had the testh extracted, but the acaks continued. I had seen advertisements of Ripaus Tabules in all the papers but had no faith in them, but shout six weeks since a friend induced me to try thom. Have taken but two of the small 3-cent boxes of the Tabules and have had no recurrence of the attacks. Have never given a feetimonial for anything before, but the great amount of good which I believe has been done me by Ripaus Tabules induces me to add mine to the many feetimonials you doubtless have in your jossession now. by Ripans Tabules induces he to and mine to it many testimonials you doubtless have in your possession now.

I want to inform you, in words of highest praise, of the benefit i have derived from Ripans Tabules. I am a profession aclear head is always needed. Sousa, the prince of concert band onductors and monarch of march composers, will appear in this city with his great band, at the Macdon ough Theater tomorrow afternoon and night. Sousa is now fulfilling the promise of his early career. He is nearing the height of his fame, and promises rich results in the coming years, in the domain of composition As for his band, whether it can be made a finer organization than it now is, is a question the future must solve The sway of Sousa over his audiences is something that is a pleasure to study. There is a magnetism in him and in the manner in which he controls the band that puts the people in thorough sympathy with him. Sousa and his hearers seem always thoroughly en rapport. The popular pieces that are easily hummed and whistled do not carry off all the hon-ors, for the finer music, the selections ors, for the finer music, the selections from the masters, appeal to the uncultured ear with force. There is evident, in the quality of the reception of better music, an education of taste that is gratifying. The soloists are Miss Mande Reese Davies, soprano, and Miss Dorothy Hoyle, violiniste. DEWEY OPERA HOUSE. There will be a great deal of pleasare occasioned by the announcement that Merosco's all-star dramatic company, including Mr. Brophy, the ver satile leading man, and all the favorites who appeared here in the last two engagements, has returned for another week's performance beginning another week's performance beginning this evening.

The play in which the company will appear is the powerful "War of Wealth." This is a modern melodrama founded on the great competition between the clashing classes of labor and lucre and the rivalry which sometimes takes place between moneyed concerns in the race for supremeacy.

The play is well written and well constructed. It is one of the great successes of the Morosco Company and will be produced here with the same performers and the same scenery

CANDIDATES AT DEWEY CAMP.

Speeches Made in Favor Dies From Her Injuries of the Republican Nominees.

A well attended meeting of the Admiral Dewey Camp of the Army and verely injured by being burned by the and Navy League was held in Dania explosion of a coal oil stove at her Hall Saturday evening. Owing to the home on Dimond avenue, near Hoppresence, by invitation, of several kins street, Fruitvale, Saturday last, candidates, the regular order of busi- died at Fabiola Hospital early yesterof the present campaign discussed.

Colonel C. N. Goldsby, the presiding officer, before turning the meeding over to the candidates made a few timely remarks regarding the present campaign and the duties of the members so far as voting was concerned. He called attention to the fact that owing to the sad circumstances, R. W. Snow, the camp's candidate for Mayor, would be unable to carry on the campaign in anything like the manner he would under favorable circumstances. He dwelt at some length upon the necessity of using report area to a low the patient to recover from the effects and death finally relieved her of her suffering.

After death the remains were borne to the residence of Dr. John Fearn, 1185 (Clay street, whence the funeral services will be held. The doctor was the physician of the family of the decased. tiwelt at some length upon the neces-ceased.

W. W. CAMRON.

W. W. Camron began his address by explaining why he did not inlist in the Eleventh and Franklin sts. Civil War and thus be eligible to membership in the League. He thanked the camp for its indorsement and then stated that an effort had been made to him off, etc., that he even been offered the had even been offered the office of Superintendent of Streets if he would but get out of the fight for the Council. These offers, he said, he had refused, because he had gone into the fight with the one object in view and he was going to stick to it steadfastiy and he was confident of winning.

stick to it steadfastly and he was condident of winning.

He then referred to his record as a public officer claiming that by his personal efforts a bill fathered by the water companies and which would have levied a tax of three cents a front foot for water, had been killed in the Legislature. This, he said, had saved the people of Oakland nearly $2,009,000, more by far than all the rest of the Councilmen were elected, had saved the city.

After referring briefly to water rates opponent both as a man and as a public official. He offered to tell his opponent's history if it was desired but no one asked it and after again thanking the camp for its indorsement he recired.

GEORGE R. STETSON. George R. Stetson, candidate for Councilman-at-large made a brief but telling address which seemed to impress his auditors favorably. He sald am very glad of an opportunity in part:

"I am very glad of an opportunity to address you gentlemen, who, when our country was in danger, shouldered your muskets and went to the front. I am always glad to meet a veteran and shake his hand and I hope soon to meet all of you personally.

"I have resided in Oakland for 33 years but this is my first experience as an office seeker so I have no political record to point to. There is one thing I can say, however, without fear of contradiction and that is I have a good rame and I am not going to the Council to lose that good name.

"There are four of us running together on the Republican ticket and I sanserely hope every one of you will vote the straight ticket including a cross opposite my name. The Republican ticket has been put before you in such a manner that it is bound to be successful. Gentlemen I thank you for your kind attention."

B. C. Cuvellier, cand date for Counci'man-at-large was then introduced. Le spoke briefly, opening his remarks by telling the members how proud he felt to be in an organization named felt to be in an organization named after a grand man of which such a good man as Admiral Drwey was a member. He then sad hadid not consider it necessary for him to make a speech as they were all familiar with his record in the Council, and he was perfectly willing to trust to their appreciation of his efforts in the past. He made a few brish references to certain occurrences in the Council and wound up by asking that all vote the straight Republican licket. ilikei. B. H. WELCH.

B. H. Welch, another candidate for roundiman-at-Large followed, He excused himself as he was just about worn out by his campaigning during wirn out by his campaigning during the last week. He spoke briefly upon the necessity of carefully selecting the term who were to conduct the affairs of the city that competent and honest men be chosen. He spoke of the many receded improvements which the city that d have and also the necessity of a more judicious disbursement of the municipal funds than has marked the last administration. If elisted he listed himself to work for all needed improvements and for a careful, judicious government.

GOLDBERG WATER RATES TO BE ADJUSTED.

Councilman Earl Favors Councilman Upton Asks a Very Low for a Modified One. Ordinance.

The elements in the City Council | known as the "majority faction" and the "minority faction" will meet this evening to finally determine the water resolution introduced on Saturday evening by the Fire and Water Comwittee. The minority faction, reprewittee. The minority faction, reprewittees the minority faction, reprewittees to restrict the stories of the s mittee. The minority faction, represented by Mr. Upton, introduced a neasure at the Committee meeting, but its surprise at a lower schedule from the majority can only be surmised. The majority, however, say that he Earl ordinance suits them better than the Upton ordinance and they will accept it instead of their own. The only reason the Upton rate was proposed was because it was a compromise as agaigst the rates of last year. Mr. Earl, who is the father of the Fire and Water Committee ordin ance, has taken bodily the text of the ordinance adopted by Messrs. Manuel, Mott, Towle and others in 1897. Councilman Earl says that the "low water rates" men of the Council must now "play ball" or own themselves gallery players. That low water rates will be adopted tonight by at least eight votes seems now certain. It is proposed to adopt them tonight by resolution and then to pass an ordinance on precisely the same lines.

At the meeting of the Fire and Water Committee of the Council last Saturday night, an ordinance and a resolution establishing the water rates for the current fiscal year were introduced by Councilman Earl.

Another ordinance on the same subject was also introduced by Councilnan Upton.

There was no difference in the rates in the Earl ordinance and resolution, the difference being solely in the nature of the measure introduced. Both of the ordinances and resolution were referred to the Council without recommendation.

The Earl ordinance is exactly the ame as the old Manuel ordinance.

Water ordinances are necessarily complicated things, more especially when changes in their rates are made by following no general rule and the rates are increased or decreased at an rregular rate per cent.

In a general way, it may be stated that the ordinance and resolution offered by Mr. Earl provide for about the same rates as did the Manuel orinance of 1895, after a reduction of 30 per cent had been made in the rates in the ordinance of 1894. The rates provided for in the Upton ordinance in ground area are the same as in the ordinance now in effect, while in some other respects there is a reduction and an increase in the

But, as a whole, the rates of the Earl ordinance are the lower, although in the ground area rates there is a gradual increase in the rates in the gradual increase in the rates in the Earl measure.

The members of the Committee present were Chairman Watkinson and Committeemen Earl and Upton. Messrs. Henneberry and Woodward were absent, but sent excuses.

After a couple of minor matters had been disposed of, Mr. Watkinson said the chair was ready to take up the subject of the water-rate ordinance.

Mr. Upton asked if any one had any ordinance on the subject which he the reading.

At the conclusion of the effort, Mr. Ear! said: "Two members of the Council not seeing fit to attend this meeting. I move that the ordinance and resolution be referred to the Council without recommendation."

There was no second but Mr. Hr.

There was no second, but Mr. Up-ton said that he also desired to intro-duce a water-rate ordinance. The measure was based in some sense upon the rates of the ordinance adopted last year, but there was a raise in some of the rates so as to equalize the cost between the big and small rate payers. There was an increase or the clive heirs, and that the title to the whole of the Fish ranch is confirmed to the widow of Mr. Olive.

The Fish ranch proper was wince to Mr. Olive by his mother-in-law, wirs, martha Winslow, and the will was an tacked by the sisters of Mrs. Olive with the result mentioned. The trial was helly and bitterly fought by both sides.

he wanted to be just to the water company, more especially as this was a dry year.

The ordinance introduced by Mr. Upton is the result of several conferences on the part of that gentleman and Councilmen Cuveiller, Girard, Rowe and Pringle.

The ordinance was read, and with the ordinance and resolution of Mr. Farl
